Exciting Expansion:

Orient Display's New Factory in Thailand!

We are thrilled to share a significant milestone in Orient Display's journey towards strategic growth and sustainable development. We have commenced the construction of our first overseas factory, located in the vibrant WHA Chonburi Industrial Park, Chonburi, Thailand. This expansion not only represents our commitment to global growth but also reinforces our dedication to the requirement of our international clients.

- 120 km from Bangkok Airport (BKK), 40 km from Laem Chabang Port (Sea)
- Approximately 16,000 square meters
- Partial Production Commencement: End of 2025
- Full Production Capacity: End of 2026
